

TAKES POISON, BUT DIES OF HEART FAILURE

Mr. W. A. Dendy Escapes One Deadly Malady Only to Succumb to Another.

Mr. W. A. Dendy died at the City Hospital at 1:30 o'clock this morning from heart failure, probably brought on as a result of an overdose of bromine taken at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

At the latter hour, the city ambulance was called to his house, at No. 2 South Fifth Street, and Dr. Mason found him on the floor of his room in a state of unconsciousness. He was taken to the hospital, where he was placed in a ward. A physician examined him and found that he was suffering from heart failure. He was given a dose of bromine, which he took at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning he was found to be dead. He had been in the hospital for about two hours. He was a member of the Episcopal Church, and had been a member of the church for many years. He was a well-known citizen of the city, and was highly respected.

PRIVATE POLICE FOR PROTECTION

himself and knowing the ability of her daughter, consented, and with the child in hand, she followed him into the trap. She placed the child in the car, and then she saw the girl disappear from the sight of the others. Miss Marie was hurrying back to tell the stationer of her success in winning a blue ribbon with her prize.

On the way she had to gallop into a heavily wooded valley about a quarter of a mile from her home, and near that of Charles McDonald, a wealthy resident of Meadow Brook Park.

It was just dark, and as she stepped up to prevent falling with a man in a light house, the man stepped out and grabbed the girl's arm.

She struggled, and he held her. He was a man of about thirty years, and was dressed in a suit. He was holding her by the arm, and she was trying to get away from him.

Gardener Hears Her Cries.

In the struggle which followed, the child screamed and attracted the attention of her mother's gardener, Robert Kennedy. Arming himself with a stout stick, he ran to the roadway, and the highwayman released Miss Laidenberg and fled.

Mrs. Laidenberg was Miss Emily Stevens, daughter of Alexander Stevens, an old New Yorker and author of the famous "National Bank in the Skies of America" romance. She was a well-known figure in the city, and was highly respected.

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman, of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate nurse from the Blockley Training School, at Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinician at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon.

Many other women are afflicted as she was. They have a general weakness, and it is prudent to heed such advice from such a source.

Mrs. Pohlman writes: "I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine for any suffering woman to use."

Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with severe headaches, and frequent backaches, and frequent dizzy spells. The doctors prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would blot after eating, and frequently become nauseated. I had pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad as a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered impractical to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female ills, where all other medicines fail. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of the female organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating or flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blue and hopeless, they should remember that there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant for many years before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her decease. In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is strictly confidential.
